- b. When calculating the 3 clear days for notice of a meeting to councillors and the public, the day on which notice was issued, the day of the meeting, a Sunday, a day of the Christmas break, a day of the Easter break or of a bank holiday or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning shall not count.
- c. Meetings shall be open to the public unless their presence is prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons. The public's exclusion from part or all of a meeting shall be by a resolution which shall give reasons for the public's exclusion.
- d. Subject to standing order 1(c) above, at the start of each Meeting of the Council and its Committees there shall be a period of time allowed for members of the public to make representation ask or answer questions and give evidence in respect of any matter within the competence of the Council. Similarly members of the public may present petitions and speak thereto, provided that the petition has been signed by persons from at least ten households. The period of time, which is at the Chairman's discretion shall not exceed 15 minutes.
- e. Subject to standing order 1 (d) above, each member of the public is entitled to speak once only in respect of business itemised on the agenda and shall not speak for more than 5 minutes.
- f. In accordance with standing order 1(d) above, a question asked by a member of the public during a public participation session at a meeting shall not require a response or debate.
- g. In accordance with standing order 1(f) above, the Chairman may direct that a response to a question posed by a member of the public be referred to a Councillor for an oral response or an employee for a written or oral response.
- h. A record of a public participation session at a meeting shall be included in the minutes of that meeting.
- i. At all meetings of the Council, the Chair may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting for a specified time to allow members of the public to address the meeting in relation to the business to be transacted at the meeting and to allow a more informal discussion to take place.

- j. Any person speaking at a meeting shall address his/her comments to the Chair. A person shall raise his/her hand when requesting to speak.
- k. Only one person is permitted to speak at a time. If more than one person wishes to speak, the Chairman shall direct the order of speaking.
- l. If a member of the public interrupts the proceedings at any Meeting, the presiding Chair may, after warning, order that he be removed from the Council Chamber.
- m. On 6th August 2014, the 1960 Act was amended by the openness of Local Government Bodies Regulations 2014 (the 2014 Regulations). The amended 1960 Act provides that a person may not orally report or comment about a meeting as it takes place if he is present at the meeting of a Parish Council or its committees but otherwise may:
  - a) Film, photograph or make an audio recording of a meeting.
  - b) Use any other means for enabling persons not present to see or hear proceedings at a meeting as it takes place or later.
  - c) Report or comment on the proceedings in writing during or after a meeting or orally report or comment after the meeting.
- n. In accordance with Standing order 1(c) above, the press shall be provided reasonable facilities for the taking of their report of all or part of a meeting at which they are entitled to be present.
- o. Subject to standing orders which indicate otherwise, anything authorised or required to be done by, to or before the Chairman may in his absence be done by, to or before the Vice-Chairman.
- p. The Chairman, if present, shall preside at a meeting. If the Chairman is absent from a meeting, the Vice-Chairman, if present, shall preside. If both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman are absent from a meeting, a Councillor chosen by the Councillors present at the meeting shall preside at the meeting.
- q. Subject to standing order 1 (y) below, all questions at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the Councillors present and voting thereon.
- r. The Chairman may give an original vote on any matter out to the vote, and in the case of an equality of votes may exercise his casting vote whether or not he gave an original vote. (see also standing orders 2 (i) and (j) below)
- s. Voting on any question shall be by a show of hands or, if at least two Members so request, by signed ballot. At the request of a Councillor, the voting on any question shall be recorded so as to show whether each Councillor present and voting gave his vote for or against that question. Such a request shall be made before moving on to the next item of business on the agenda.
- t. The minutes of a meeting shall record the names of Councillors present and apologies for absence.

- u. The code of conduct adopted by Council shall apply to Councillors in respect of the entire meeting.
- v. An interest arising from the code of conduct adopted by the Council, the existence and nature of which is required to be disclosed by a Councillor at a meeting shall be recorded in the minutes. (see also standing orders 7 and 8 below).

B If a motion falls within the terms of reference of a committee or sub-committee or within the delegated powers conferred on an employee, a referral of the same may be made to such committee or sub-committee or employee provided that the Chair may direct for it to be dealt with at the present meeting for reasons of urgency or expedience.

6 Rules of debate

- a. Councillors shall address the presiding Chair.
- b. A Councillor shall indicate that he wishes to speak by raising a hand and Councillors shall be heard in the order in which they indicated. If two or more Councillors indicate at once, the presiding Chair shall call upon one of them to speak before the other.
- c. Whenever the presiding Chair speaks during a debate all other Councillors shall be silent.
- d. A resolution or amendment shall not be discussed unless it has been proposed and seconded, and unless proper notice has already given, it shall, if required by the presiding Chair, be reduced to writing and handed to him before it is further discussed or put to the meeting.
- e. A Councillor when seconding a resolution or amendment may, if he then declare his intention to do so, reserve his speech until a later period of the debate.
- f. A Councillor shall direct his speech to the question under discussion or to a personal explanation or to a point of order.

- g. No speech by a mover of a motion shall exceed 5 minutes except by consent of the Council and no other speech shall exceed 3 minutes except with such consent.
- h. A Councillor may move amendments to his own motion. If a motion has already been seconded, an amendment to it shall be with the consent of the seconder.
- i. Any amendments to a motion shall be either:
  - i. To leave out words;
  - ii. To add words;
  - iii. To leave out words and add other words.
- j. A proposed or carried amendment to a motion shall not have the effect of rescinding the original or substantive motion under consideration.
- k. Only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the Chair. No further amendment to a motion shall be moved until the previous amendment has been disposed of.
- l. Subject to standing order 6 (k) above, one or more amendments may be discussed together if the Chair considers this expedient but shall be voted on separately.
- m. Pursuant to standing order 6(k) above, the number of amendments to an original or substantive motion, which may be moved by a councillor is limited to one.
- n. If an amendment is not carried, other amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the Chair.
- o. If an amendment is carried, the original motion, as amended, shall take the place of the original motion and shall become the substantive motion upon which any further amendment may be moved.
- p. The mover of a motion or the mover of an amendment shall have a right of reply, not exceeding 3 minutes.
- q. When a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply in respect of the substantive motion at the very end of debate and immediately before it is put to the vote.
- r. Subject to standing orders 6(p) and (q) above, a Councillor may not speak more than once in respect of any one motion except to move an amendment or further amendment, speak once on an amendment moved by another councillor or to make a point or order or to give a personal explanation, or to move a closure.
- s. During the debate of a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A Councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the irregularity in the meeting he is concerned by. A personal explanation shall be confined to some material part of a former speech by him which may have been misunderstood.
- t. A point of order, or the admissibility of a personal explanation shall be decided by the Chair and his decision shall be final.
- u. With the consent of the meeting, a motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the proposer. No councillor may speak upon the said motion or amendment unless permission for the withdrawal of the motion or amendment has been refused.

- v. Subject to standing order 6® above, when a councillor's motion is under debate no other motion shall be moved except:
  - i. to amend the motion;
  - ii. to proceed to the next business;
  - iii. to adjourn the debate to an agreed date;
  - iv. to put the motion to a vote;

- b. Any proposed contract for the supply of goods, materials, services and the execution of works with an estimated value in excess of £50,000 shall be procured on the basis of a formal tender as summarised in the Council's Financial Regulations.
- c. Where the value of a contract is likely to exceed £138,893 (or other threshold specified by the Office of Government Commerce from time to time) the Council must consider whether the Public Contracts Regulations 2006 (SI No.5 as amended) and the Utilities Contracts Regulations 2006 (SI No.6 as amended) apply to the contract and, if either of those Regulations apply, the Council must comply with EU procurement rules.

31 Allegations of breaches of the code of conduct

- a. On receipt of a notification that there has been an alleged breach of the code of conduct, the Proper Officer shall refer it to the Full Council.
- b. Where the notification relates to a complaint made by the Proper Officer, the Proper Officer shall notify the Chair of that fact, who, upon receipt of such notification shall nominate a person to assume the duties of the Proper Officer set out in the remainder of this standing order, who shall continue to act in respect of that matter as such until the complaint is resolved.
- c. Where a complaint has been made by an employee (not being the Proper Officer) the Proper Officer shall ensure that the employee in question does not deal with any aspect of the complaint.
- d. The subject matter of notifications shall be confidential and insofar as it is possible to do so by law, the Council (including Proper Officer and the Chair of Council) shall take steps set out below, together with other steps considered necessary, to maintain confidentiality:
  - i. Draft the summonses and agendas in such a way that the identity and subject matter of the complaint are not disclosed;
  - ii. Ensure that any background papers containing the information set out in standing order 31(a) above are not made public.
  - iii. Ensure that the public and press are excluded from meetings as appropriate;
  - iv. Ensure the minutes of meetings preserve confidentiality;
  - v. Consider any liaison that may be required with the person or body with statutory responsibility for the investigation of the matter.
- e. Standing order 31(d) above should not be taken to prohibit the Council (whether through the Proper Officer or the Chair of Council or otherwise) from disclosing information to members and officers of the council or to other persons where such disclosure is necessary to deal with the complaint or is required by law.
- f. Council shall have the power to:
  - i. Seek documentary and other evidence from the person or body with statutory responsibility for investigation of the matter;
  - ii. Seek and share information relevant to the complaint;

- iii. Grant the member involved a financial indemnity in respect of legal costs, which shall be in accordance with the law and subject to approval by a meeting of the full council.
- g. References in standing order 31 to a notification shall be taken to refer a communication of any kind which relates to a breach or an alleged breach of the code of conduct by a councillor.

32 Variation, revocation and suspension of standing order

- a. Any of every part of the standing orders, except those printed in bold type which are mandatory by law, may be suspended by resolution in relation to any specific item of business.
- b. A motion to permanently add to or to vary or to revoke one or more of the Council's standing orders not mandatory by law shall not be carried unless two thirds of the councillors at a meeting of the Council vote in favour of the same.

33 Standing orders to be given to councillors

- a. The Proper Officer shall provide a copy of the Council's standing orders to a councillor upon delivery of his declaration of acceptance of office.
- b. The Chair's decision as to the application of standing orders at meetings shall be final.
- c. A councillor's failure to observe standing orders more than 3 times in one meeting may result in him being excluded from the meeting in accordance with standing orders.

34 Freedom of the Town

Freedom of the Town may be granted annually to organisations and individuals.
