5868 HEALTH & WELL BEING IN WINCANTON

After discussion, Council resolved to support the concept of a Wincanton Community Partnership and nominated Councillor Ellard to represent the Council within the group and report back to Council with the aims and objectives of the Community Partnership.

The Chairman suspended Standing Orders to allow 4 young people to speak.

A group of boys talked about the surface of the skate park and the need for repair. They also talked about the rubbish problem and that the people who use the skate park are not responsible for the litter. The Clerk has contacted Evolution Skate Parks to visit the site and quote for repair. The Clerk asked the boys to write a list of suggestions and deliver to the Town Hall. The Chairman thanked the group for taking the time to attend a meeting.

The Chairman re-instated Standing Orders
